

THE CENTENARIAN

Dear Centenary UMC Family and Friends,

Mark 13:28 states: "28 "Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near"

The people of history recognized the changing of the seasons based upon the harvest of certain crops or fruits. Our current culture is a bit different. We have the constant commercials which let us know what the latest products are a must have to get us prepared for a particular season. Summer is approaching and advertisements for sunscreen, water toys for children, and grilling equipment for summer cookouts seem to be all the rage.

As United Methodist in the Western North Carolina Conference, we have a different gage related to the summer months, we have the Annual Conference at Lake Junaluska to remind us that the summer month of June has arrived.

This year the Annual Conference will take place from June  $16^{th} - 19^{th}$ . It will be the first time which we will be able to convene in person, and to have Bishop Ken Carter presiding. The theme for this year is Connect, Imagine, Engage. I will be attending, along with Betty Durham who you elected at the Charge Conference as your Delegate.

I believe that there will be a lot of discussion regarding the business of the Annual Conference as well as the postponement of the United Methodist Church General Conference.

As your Pastor, I am trying to keep the leaders, as well as the congregation informed of the discussions leading up to the General Conference for fall of 2024. The United Methodist Churches are to wait until after the vote of the Conference on many items to then see the direction which the individual churches will choose to go. I feel that we must stay informed but not let that be our main focus. Our main focus is to be the church which knows Jesus, shares His love in service to the world, make disciples, and transform the world.

The United Methodist has a rich tradition, and I for one intend to stay true to this heritage which my family has been a part of for years. Recently Bishop Ken Carter wrote a wonderful article on why he loves The United Methodist Church. I want to share it with you here:

Our doctrine of grace, which is not about our merit. We are on a journey to share this grace with a wider circle of people. We are not there yet. God has bid all humankind.

Our journey to holiness, being made perfect in love. We love God because God first loved us. And we love our neighbor because we see the image of God in them.

Our connection for the purpose of mission. For example, right now this is UMCOR in Ukraine (war). A few months ago it was Western Kentucky (tornado). A few months before that it was Western North Carolina (flood). A few years ago it was Florida (hurricane).

Our work in discipleship, from Upper Room and Walk to Emmaus to Disciple Bible Study to Covenant Discipleship to Disciple's Path to The Bible Year to Fresh Expression

Our journey to inclusion, from women in ministry to the black college fund to becoming a global church to equitable compensation to struggling with our language about homosexuality. This is not a problem. This is the unfinished work of God in us.

Our doctrinal standards, which have not changed and do not change, and our theological task, which integrates our convictions about scripture with tradition, reason, and experience. I love that we are a church with sound doctrine, and I love that the theological task is to apply that doctrine to ever-changing human needs.

We are an imperfect church, the cross a reminder of our need for redemption, the flame a reminder of our hardened hearts in need of the warm fire of the Holy Spirit whose first fruit is love. We are an imperfect church because we are imperfect people—all have sinned. And we are better together, and no one is being asked to leave.

Grace. Holiness. Mission. Discipleship. Inclusion. Doctrinal Standards. Theological Task. Cross and Flame. Better Together.

The Diamond Eye by Kate Quinn

In 1937 in the snowbound city of Kiev (now known as Kyiv), wry and bookish history student Mila Pavlichenko organizes her life around her library job and her young son—but Hitler's invasion of Ukraine and Russia sends her on a different path. Given a rifle and sent to join the fight, Mila must forge herself from studious girl to deadly sniper—a lethal hunter of Nazis known as Lady Death. When news of her three hundredth kill makes her a national heroine, Mila finds herself torn from the bloody battlefields of the eastern front and sent to America on a goodwill tour.

Still reeling from war wounds and devastated by loss, Mila finds herself isolated and lonely in the glittering world of Washington, DC—until an unexpected friendship with First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt and an even more unexpected connection with a silent fellow sniper offer the possibility of happiness. But when an old enemy from Mila's past joins forces with a deadly new foe lurking in the shadows, Lady Death finds herself battling her own demons and enemy bullets in the deadliest duel of her life.

Based on a true story, The Diamond Eye is a haunting novel of heroism born of desperation, of a mother who became a soldier, of a woman who found her place in the world and changed the course of history forever

Thursday, September 15th, The Prayer Box by Lisa Wingate

When Iola Anne Poole, an old-timer on Hatteras Island, passes away in her bed at ninetyone, the struggling young mother in her rental cottage, Tandi Jo Reese, finds herself charged with the task of cleaning out Iola's rambling Victorian house

Running from a messy, dangerous past, Tandi never expects to find more than a temporary hiding place within Iola's walls, but everything changes with the discovery of eighty-one carefully decorated prayer boxes, one for each year, spanning from Iola's youth to her last days. Hidden in the boxes is the story of a lifetime, written on random bits of paper--the hopes and wishes, fears and thoughts of an unassuming but complex woman passing through the seasons of an extraordinary, unsung life filled with journeys of faith, observations on love, and one final lesson that could change everything.
